News & Notes

November 2014

Featured Guest Musician: SEAN J. KENNEDY

SEAN J. KENNEDY is equally at home on the concert stage or in the teaching studio. His drumset playing has been described as “very soulful”, by renowned bassist Will Lee. Jazz legend Dave Brubeck stated that Sean’s drumming

“...sounds like it should...It swings!”

To date the Sean J. Kennedy Quartet has released three albums.

When not recording and performing with his own group, Mr. Kennedy is a busy freelance drumset and percussion artist and has been a featured marimba and xylophone soloist with the Allentown Band and the Bryn Athyn Symphony Orchestra. Performance venues for Mr. Kennedy include Avery Fischer Hall in New York City, Good Morning America, the Philly Pops and the Academy of Music in Philadelphia.

In addition to performing, Mr. Kennedy has been teaching percussion for nearly two decades and maintains a busy private studio. At home in the Philadelphia area, he is a secondary level instrumental teacher as well as a college-level music instructor. Mr. Kennedy has a B.S. in Music Education and an M.M. in Percussion Performance from West Chester University.

The Southampton Community Band welcomes the talents of Mr. Kennedy at our November 2014 concert.
