To our subscribers,

I am so sorry that we were not able to perform our January concert for you! The band was working very hard and it was going to be a great night! As you likely recall, our Governor declared a state of emergency on Thursday afternoon, approximately 48 hours before the storm was set to arrive. Our host school district, reacting appropriately, decided to shutter all facilities for the entire weekend, putting the cancellation of the concert out of our hands.

Anyway, what's past is past. Let's talk about March 9...Our next concert is themed "Oscar Night" and should be a fun and memorable program. The Music Selection Committee and I have assembled a slate of music pulled from Oscar-winning and Oscar-nominated films. Music from the golden age of Hollywood and music from more recent cinematic excursions will be played on stage. The entire night will provide you with quality entertainment.

Thank you so much for being a loyal subscriber to this group. We appreciate our large group of dedicated patrons. Please bring your neighbors and friends along on March 9, as I'd love to see us perform to a full house! To find the latest information on our band (including cancellations) be sure to check us out on Facebook (Southampton Community Band) and our website: southamptonband.org.

See you soon. Michael Regosh, Conductor
